

2022 COMPETITIVE GRANT WINNERS - $298,328

Children's Advocacy Center of Southeastern Indiana $33,500 - to provide a safety and abuse prevention program to schools in Madison and Jefferson County

City of Madison $50,000 - to support the restoration of the Oakhill Subdivision Park playground equipment

Developmental Services, Inc. $900 - to support the purchase of Smartboards for client use

Englishton Park Presbyterian Ministries, Inc. $2,850 - to support the replacement of the above-ground pool utilized by the summer camp students

Grace Works/Hope Community $27,000 - to support the renovation of flooring, countertops, and cabinets in apartments for their senior citizen tenants

Habitat for Humanity of Jefferson County $10,000 - to support the building of a home in the Clifty Woods subdivision

Hanover Community Garden $10,000 - to support infrastructure improvements to the new garden space

Historic Madison, Inc. $30,000 - to support a matching grant opportunity to create an Historic Structure Report for the Jeremiah Sullivan House

Hoosier Trails Council, Boy Scouts of America $4,500 - to support the creation of workforce development and outreach programs for Jefferson County scouts

Indian Kentuck Baptist Church $20,000 - to purchase food items for the church's community food pantry

Ivy Tech Community College – Madison $35,000 - to provide equipment for the Nursing and Paramedic Program simulation apartment

Jefferson County 4-H & Agricultural Association $5,300 - to support the creation of a mural on the Jefferson County 4-H Fairgrounds' Community Building

Jefferson County United Way $5,000 - to support the Dolly Parton Imagination Library

Life Choices Clinic $3,700 - to purchase technology, storage supplies and staff training materials for the clinic

Madison Area Arts Alliance $10,100 - to support the installation of the "Flight" public sculpture exhibit at Bicentennial Park

Madison Performing Arts Foundation $2,100 - to support two upcoming concerts

Recovery Café $5,650 - to purchase laptops for staff and clients to utilize for programs and services

Salvation Army-Madison Citadel $15,000 - to purchase and upgrade the phone system and purchase a room divider for the emergency shelter program

Southwestern Elementary School $6,000 - to support the creation of a student attendance reward initiative

Springdale Cemetery Association $20,000 - to purchase software to aid in the digitalization of historic cemetery records

Tiny Kids Can $1,728 - to purchase accounting software for the organization