

2025 Grant Awards

Children's Advocacy Center of Southeastern Indiana - $1,500 to purchase hall and stairway runners for the organization's office to help absorb sound and provide fewer distractions during forensic interviews

Hoosier Trails Council, BSA - $2,130

to provide financial assistance for scouts of a newly created troop serving families living in rural Jefferson County

Jefferson County Sheriff's Office - $1,920

to support outreach programming for youth to promote positive behavior engagement opportunities with law enforcement officers

Madison Area Arts Alliance - $1,763

to support the weeklong camp that introduces students to different art forms and fosters creativity through hands-on activities

Madison Ulster Project - $960

to cover fees to allow Ulster Project participants to attend programming at the Nancy & David Wolf Holocaust & Humanity Center in Cincinnati, OH

Madison Youth Unlimited, Inc. - $6,950

to purchase food and supplies for a 4-week cooking and nutrition workshop series for Jefferson County residents experiencing nutrition insecurity

Recovery Café Madison - $2,700

to provide materials and supplies for workshops to help women in recovery from substance use, mental health challenges, trauma, incarceration, and life instability

Southwestern Pool Boosters - $1,550

to provide a water aerobics instructor for winter classes open to the community at the Southwestern High School pool

Trinity United Methodist Church - $1,500 to purchase new sneakers and socks for local children in need